night of the dance he was delayed in coming home by train being late, he said to me Ma! I don't think I will go now it's so late, but I said, you can't let her down Harry even if you are late, so he went & that was the beginning of their romance, just after this I was introduced to Grace Dove for the first time,

I loved her like a daughter, & when they married did everything I could to help. Her mother & father died so we were brought closer together. They bought a new little house in Overdale Rd & lived there a few yrs.
Grace had a sister Molly & a brother Philip.
Her father was really well off, he owned 2 businesses Printing, The war was very bad at that time, & one night Bristol was heavily bombed. The 2 factories were burnt to the ground. It was a great loss & I think it was the real cause of his death, just after he had a bad stroke & did not live very long. Other property he owned as well was lost to the enemy. A great loss to the family who should have been all very well off.
I would like to describe my son, he was 6 feet tall Fair, & a gentleman. They had their first baby in Overdale Rd. Clifford, he was a lovely little fair haired boy & we loved him very much. His eyes later
